Cascinale in tufo a Rosignano Monferrato

Rosignano Monferrato

We are in Monferrato, a territory recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, a short distance from Cella Monte, and precisely in Rosignano Monferrato and we offer you "The Country House in Tufo". It is a typical Piedmontese farmhouse, in an independent but not isolated position, to be renovated, with land and garden of 14,000 meters, and a view of the hills.

The farmhouse is entirely in tuff stone, a typical material of the area, and inside it still retains original details, from the vaults with beams and bricks, to the arches of the barn, to the terracotta floors, which through a skillful renovation, can give this farmhouse back its charm. It is an optimal solution for those looking for a house in the countryside with welcoming environments inside, and with a large outdoor space.

Furthermore, there is the possibility of having it completely renovated, recovering the internal spaces according to your needs and style, deciding on finishes and materials, layout of the rooms. This is a unique opportunity! Contact us for further details.
